Congress of the United States
House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515-4331

March 20, 2017

Dear Central Texas Friends,

One of the privileges of serving in the United States House of Representatives is the opportunity to nominate outstanding young men and women from the Texas 31st, Congressional District to be considered for appointment to our nation's service academies. It is my pleasure to assist our young people as they begin their goal to serve our great Country in a military career.

Please save this date. I am reaching out to you about the third-annual Central Texas US Service Academy Forum to be held on Saturday, September 23, at Texas A&M Central Texas in Warrior Hall, Killeen, TX 76549. Registration begins at 9:00 am. The program begins at 9:30 am and will end at 12:00 noon. It is free and reservations are not needed.

Central Texas US Service Academy Forum
September 23, 2017 9 am-12 noon
Warrior Hall
Texas A&M Central Texas
1001 Leadership Place
Killeen, TX 76549

If you or your 9th, 10th, 11th or 12th grade student are interested in the US Service Academy nomination process or a career in the military as a commissioned officer, this forum will present valuable information for you. Students, parents, educators, and citizens will have the opportunity to hear from and ask questions to academy admissions representatives, congressional staff members, current academy cadets and ROTC advisors.

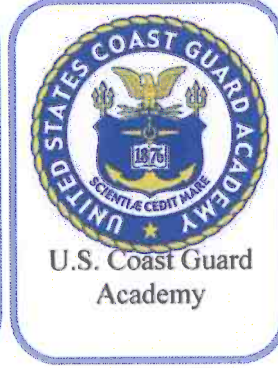

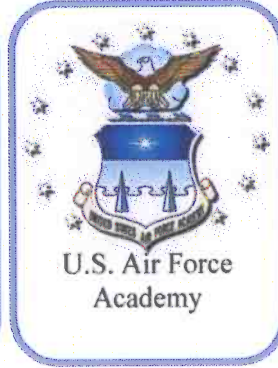

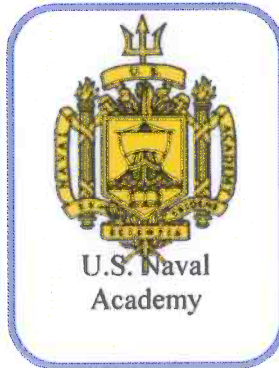

The forum is co-hosted by the offices of Senator John Cornyn, Senator Ted Cruz, Congressman Bill Flores, Congressman Michael McCaul, Congressman Roger Williams and Congressman John R. Carter.

For more information, please contact: Cheryl Hassmann, Office of Congressman John R. Carter-Texas 31; phone 254-933-1392; or cheryl.hassmann@mail.house.gov

Sincerely,

John R. Carter-Texas 31
Member of Congress
